INTRO

G - - - | C - - C G/B | G - - - | C2 - -

VERSE ONE

| G C | G C | G C | D
Those things, they keep me from the truth lea - ving me far away from You.
| C D | G D/F# Em7 D | C | Dsus D
They are dark and cold, but still I find that I am holding on, holding on.
| G C | G C | G C | D
To those things, that keep me standing still, bind - ing me here against Your will.
| C D | G D/F# Em7 D | C | Dsus D
But I am sure that life is more than quiet - ly sur - render - ing to all those things.

CHORUS

| G Bm7 | Em D
So (That) whatev - er is true, whatev - er is noble,
| C G/B | Am D
Whatev - er is right and pure and full of love,
| G C | D Em
If it is wor - thy of praise and worthy of You,
| Am D | G
I will think about these things.

VERSE TWO

| G C | G C | G C | D
Those things, I wear them like a mask blind - ing until the chance is past.
| C D | G D/F# Em7 D | C
But You are light to me, a lamp unto my feet to guide my way,
| Dsus D
And I can hear You say:

CHORUS TWICE

| C D | Em D | Am D | G
I will think about these things. Help me think about these things.
